Read the United States Regional Privacy Notice If for more details about how we handle Personal Information and how to exercise your rights.

Highlights

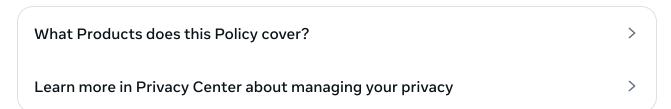

We at Meta want you to understand what information we collect, and how we use and share it. That's why we encourage you to read our Privacy Policy. This helps you use Meta Products in the way that's right for you.

In the Privacy Policy, we explain how we collect, use, share, retain and transfer information. We also let you know your rights. Each section of this Policy includes helpful examples and simpler language to make our practices easier to understand. We've also added links to resources where you can learn more about the privacy topics that interest you.

It's important to us that you know how to control your privacy, so we also show you where you can manage your information in the settings of the Meta Products you use. You can update these settings to shape your experience.

Read the full Policy below.

What information do we collect?

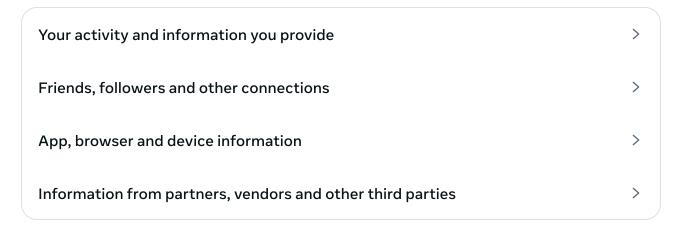

Highlights

0:00 / 1:43

The information we collect and process about you depends on how you use our Products. For example, we collect different information if you sell furniture on Marketplace than if you post a reel on Instagram. When you use our Products, we collect some information about you even if you don't have an account.

Here's the information we collect:

What if you don't let us collect certain information?

Some information is required for our Products to work. Other information is optional, but without it, the quality of your experience might be affected.

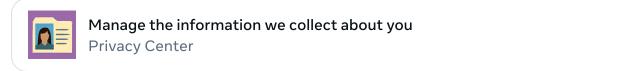

Learn more >

What if the information we collect doesn't identify individuals?

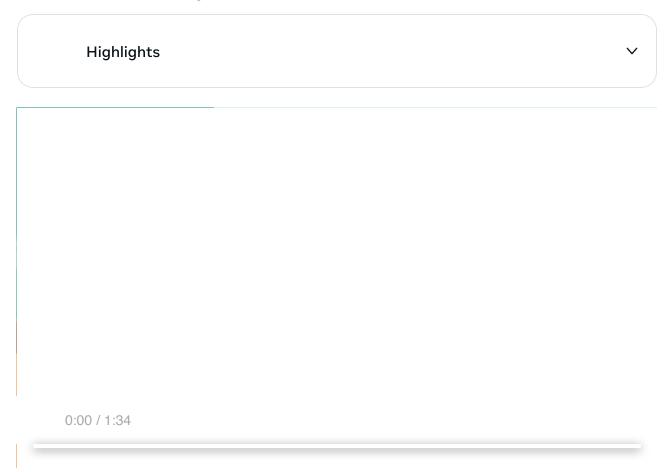

In some cases information is de-identified, aggregated, or anonymized by third parties so that it no longer identifies individuals before it's made available to us. We use this information as described below without trying to re-identify individuals.

How do we use your information?

We use information we collect to provide a personalized experience to you, including ads, along with the other purposes we explain in detail below.

For some of these purposes, we use information across our Products and across your devices. The information we use for these purposes is automatically processed by our systems. But in some cases, we also use manual review to access and review your information.

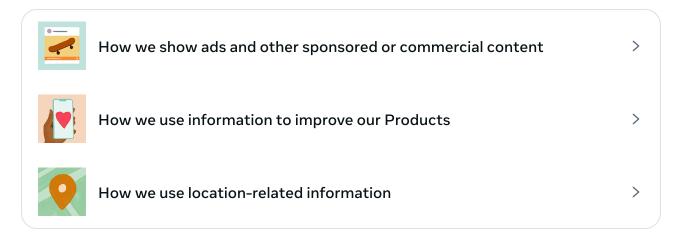

To use less information that's connected to individual users, in some cases we de-identify or aggregate information or anonymize it so that it no longer identifies you. We use this information in the same ways we use your information as described in this section.

Here are the ways we use your information:

To provide, personalize and improve our Products

We use information we have to provide and improve our Products. This includes personalizing features, content and recommendations ②, such as your Facebook Feed, Instagram Feed ②, Stories and ads. We use information with special protections you choose to provide for these purposes, but not to show you ads.

How do we share information with third parties?

We don't sell any of your information to anyone, and we never will. We also require partners and other third parties to follow rules about how they can and cannot use and disclose the information we provide.

Here's more detail about who we share information with:

Partners

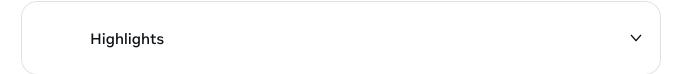

Vendors Measurement vendors Marketing vendors Service providers Service providers Service providers Al integrations

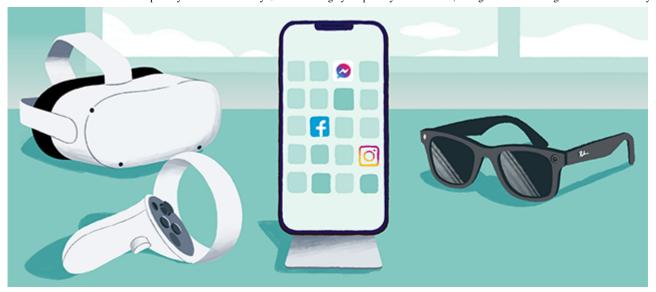

Other third parties

We also share information with other third parties \blacksquare in response to legal requests, to comply with applicable law or to prevent harm. Read the Policy.

And if we sell or transfer all or part of our business to someone else, in some cases we'll give the new owner your information as part of that transaction, but only as the law allows.

How do the Meta Companies work together?

We are part of the Meta Companies \Box that provide Meta Company Products. Meta Company Products \Box include all the Meta Products covered by this Policy, plus other products like WhatsApp and more.

We share information we collect, infrastructure, systems and technology with the other Meta Companies. Learn more about how we transfer information to other countries.

We also process information that we receive about you from other Meta Companies, according to their terms and policies and as permitted by applicable law. In some cases, Meta acts as a service provider $extbf{ extit{ infty}}$ for other Meta Companies. We act on their behalf and in accordance with their instructions and terms.

Why we share across the Meta Companies

Meta Products share information with other Meta Companies:

- To promote safety, security and integrity and comply with applicable laws
- To personalize offers, ads and other sponsored or commercial content
- To develop and provide features and integrations
- To understand how people use and interact with Meta Company Products

How long do we keep your information?

Highlights	V

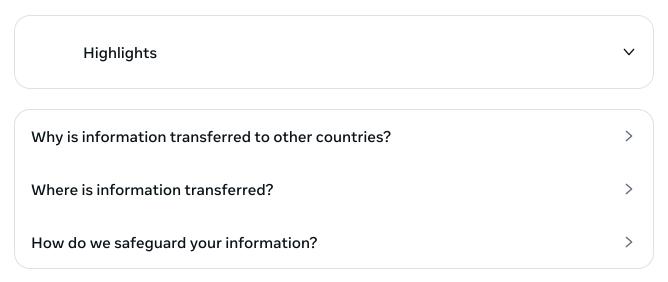

We keep information as long as we need it to provide our Products, comply with legal obligations or protect our or other's interests. We decide how long we need information on a case-by-case basis. Here's what we consider when we decide:

- If we need it to operate or provide our Products. For example, we need to keep some of your information to maintain your account. Learn more.
- The feature we use it for, and how that feature works. For example, messages sent using Messenger's vanish mode are retained for less time than regular messages.

 Learn more.
- How long we need to retain the information to comply with certain legal obligations.
 See some examples.
- If we need it for other legitimate purposes, such as to prevent harm; investigate possible violations of our terms or policies; promote safety, security and integrity; or protect ourselves, including our rights, property or products

In some instances and for specific reasons, we'll keep information for an extended period of time. Read our Policy about when we may preserve your information.

How do we transfer information?

How do we respond to legal requests, comply with applicable law and prevent harm?

We access, preserve, use and share your information:

- In response to legal requests, like search warrants, court orders, production orders or subpoenas. These requests come from third parties such as civil litigants, law enforcement and other government authorities. Learn more about when we respond to legal requests.
- In accordance with applicable law

• To promote the safety, security and integrity of Meta Products, users, employees, property and the public. Learn more.

We may access or preserve your information for an extended amount of time. Learn more.

How will you know the Policy has changed?

We'll notify you before we make material changes to this Policy. You'll have the opportunity to review the revised Policy before you choose to continue using our Products.

For processing information when the law requires it: Where we are under an obligation to disclose information such as, for example, if we receive a valid legal request for certain information such as a search warrant, we will access, preserve and/or share your information with regulators, law enforcement or others.

The way in which the information will be processed depends on the specific circumstances. See the "How do we respond to legal requests, prevent harm and promote safety and integrity?" section of the Meta Privacy Policy for more. "Information for Law Enforcement Authorities [2]

" provides information on the operational guidelines law enforcement needs to follow.

The categories of information depend on the specific circumstances of each mandatory request or obligation. Only the information necessary to comply with the relevant legal obligation will be shared or otherwise processed. For example, for civil matters, this will typically include limited information (such as contact details and login information). However, depending on the circumstances it could include the following:

- Content you create, like posts, comments or audio
- Content you provide through our camera feature or your camera roll settings, or through our voiceenabled features
- Messages you send and receive, including their content, subject to applicable law
- Metadata about content and messages, subject to applicable law
